

CollegeNET.com Student News

Information, ideas and resources for the CollegeNET.com community

*"Education is not the filling of a pail, but the lighting of a fire."
- William Butler Yeats (1865-1939)*

VOLUME 4 ISSUE 1

JANUARY 22, 2014

Recent News You Should Care About:

Student Debt is on the Rise

International Students Flock to U.S. Schools

Admissions Officers are Reading Your Tweets

Making the Leap from College Student to Entrepreneur

How to Graduate College Without Debt

The 10 Best Jobs for College Graduates

The U.S. to Begin Regulating Largest Student-Loan Servicing Firms

Visit our blog!

Have you checked out CollegeNET.com's blog? Go to blog.collegenet.com and read about the latest trends and hottest topics on life before, during and after college, profiles of recent winners and more.

CollegeNET.com is on Facebook, Twitter, and Google+.

Invite Your Friends to Participate!

Christina Guidry: WINNER PROFILE

Christina (GeauxGuidry) is a recent graduate of Arkansas Tech University. She has won a total of $13,528 from CollegeNET.com.

CollegeNET: What did you study and what is your ideal profession?

Christina Guidry: I graduated in May 2012 with a degree in Print Journalism. Right now I am working as a freelance reporter and photographer for high school sports here in my city. My dream job is to be a sports photographer for LSU.

CN: How did you discover CollegeNET.com? What prompted you to sign up?

CG: My first semester of college I was in class with a new friend and I saw her on the computer and I asked her what she was doing. And she said that she was on CollegeNET.com trying to win a scholarship, that I should sign up because she has won before and it is an awesome site. So that same day I signed up and winning for the first time was a great accomplishment for me.

CN: Where do you get inspiration for your CollegeNET.com forum posts?

CG: I have learned to listen. I listen to people and their conversations and if I find their top interesting then I share it on CollegeNET. I also watch the news every night.

CN: How often do you use CollegeNET.com?

CG: With having two demanding jobs, it's hard for me to be on CollegeNET.com as often as I'd like. When my life isn't so crazy I stop in and post/vote. I do what I can, when I can. But when I do get the chance to drop in, it's nice to see fellow veterans.

CN: How have your CollegeNET winnings impacted you?

CG: It has lessened my student loan debt tremendously, and I hope to continue to win so I can pay for the rest of my loan. It has also taken away some stress, without CollegeNET I'm not sure how I would have paid for all of my schooling.

CN: Do you have any advice for others on CollegeNET.com?

CG: It's not an easy scholarship to win but it shouldn't be. It takes a lot of dedication and thinking. Through this site, I've learned to never give up.

Topics Introduced on www.CollegeNET.com

Good vs. Bad: "Perhaps the blatant generalizing of people as being either good or bad in kids shows leads to a formed habit by kids that grow up to quickly judge people. What do you think? Can we change the process of social behaviors by changing the way we learn about what makes a "good" or "bad" person?" — Mykala (Mykala Sobieck)

Life Regrets: "What is the biggest regret you have in your life so far? Does it still haunt you? Have you tried to let it go, but it's still in the back of your mind? What is something that you wish played out differently? What do you think your life would be like now if it was different?" — Marteen (marteenclary)