SECTION B: WORK PROGRAMS

When you filed your Free Application for Federal Student Aid, you may have expressed interest in work-study. Considering your response, eligibility and availability of funds, work-study may be included in your aid package based on your FAFSA results and receipt of any other required documentation. Work-study programs are approximately 6-10 hours per week. Before beginning work study employment, new students must attend an information session on guidelines, rules and regulations governing this program.

Please indicate the types of work-study you are interested in:

- Federal On Campus Work-Study: This entails being placed in a position on-campus based on your abilities, your needs, and the needs of on-campus departments.
- Off Campus Community Service Work: This entails placement at various non-profit organizations such as health-care, childcare, social service, and community improvement facilities. Community work students must have means of transportation for off campus programs.

SECTION E: MANAGEMENT OF ACCOUNT BALANCES

If at any point during my academic years at Albertus Magnus College a credit balance occurs on my account, I authorize Albertus Magnus College to manage my funds. A credit balance will remain on my account for future educational charges to be debited until the end of the academic year in which the credit occurs.

I understand that it is my responsibility to contact the Student Business Office directly to check on the status of my account. Refund requests are made with a Business Office representative and confirmed by the Financial Aid Office. Any refunds existing on an account at the end of a loan period will be automatically returned to the lender, unless otherwise notified.

By federal regulations, you are entitled to revoke this authorization at any time.
