Further Guidance for Referees (candidate references): The faculty has identified six values or commitments we believe are required of educational professionals. These core values are:

- 1. Scholarship: Values and engages in lifelong learning
- 2. Reflective Practice: Values learning through meaningful activity
- 3. Social Justice: Values learning and service in the contexts of our diverse communities
- 4. Inclusive Community: Embraces community and collaboration
- 5. Wellness: Values personal growth and development of the whole person
- 6. Creativity and the Arts: Values the creative processes

In the reference, please explain if you believe the candidate is above average or exemplary in aspects of their lives associated with these values. Provide specific examples that support that belief. If you believe the candidate displays behaviors that are not consistent with these values, please explain in the narrative. Feel free to add any narrative comments that would help us to determine whether the applicant has the background and essential dispositions for success in their chosen field.

Do not return this form to the applicant.
