

AFFIDAVIT OF SUPPORT

CONFIDENTIAL

The affidavit of support is designed to provide financial information from international students who are applying to Taylor University so that we may better assist them in their financial needs. No application for admission will be considered until the affidavit of support is received, fully completed and signed by the student and parent. Taylor University does not provide full scholarships or grants. You must also have financial support from other sources.

Complete this form in detail and return it to the Office of Admissions as soon as possible so that we may proceed with the processing of your application.
