Dear Educational Colleague,

The applicant named above is interested in applying for admission to Wasatch Academy, a four-year, co-educational, college preparatory boarding and day school for students attracted from all over the world. Wasatch Academy seeks students with a strong desire to improve their scholastic performance and a willingness to develop the skills, habits, and self-discipline necessary for higher education. Daily accountability for work and a structured learning environment are the hallmarks of a Wasatch education.

Your candid estimate of the applicant's past performance and attitudes as well as his or her potential for success in this different learning environment will be of great value to our Admission Committee.

Please mail this form directly to the Admission Office or seal the envelope, sign your name across the flap, and return the envelope to the applicant.
