(NOTE: The admission process requires your insight regarding this applicant. If the applicant does not waive his or her right to review this document, he or she has permission to read this recommendation.)

Thank you in advance for your help. We are interested in your assessment of this student's spiritual development. Please comment on the student's level of commitment to spiritual growth, participation in a church or organization and potential to contribute to a Christian community, keeping the following community lifestyle expectations in mind:

Colorado Christian University seeks to admit students who will thrive in a distinctly Christian learning community. Members of the CCU community are committed to Christian values and actively participate in the integration of faith and learning.

CCU students commit to specific standards which are found in the Student Handbook. These policies comply with state and federal laws regarding alcohol and drugs. Further, students will refrain from the possession and use or being under the influence of alcohol, tobacco and non-prescriptive drugs on University property, at University events or at University-related activities. CCU students will also refrain from immoral sexual behavior and from the possession and use of obscene or pornographic images or literature and will strive for an attitude of purity. Students are encouraged to seek help and counsel if they struggle with these matters. These standards are established in order to provide a healthy environment for growth and learning.
