

CollegeNET.com Student News

Information, ideas and resources for the CollegeNET.com community

"An investment in knowledge pays the best dividends." - Benjamin Franklin

VOLUME 3 ISSUE 1

JANUARY 4, 2013

Total Scholarships and Loan Repayments Tops $1.1 Million

Since 2007, CollegeNET.com has awarded $1,172,002.30 in scholarships for active tuition and student loan repayments.

Congratulations to the Latest Grand Prize Winners

On October 26, CollegeNET announced the following grand prize winners:

- Joseph Schlatter (Boston University): $20,000
- Jennifer Cork (Eastern Washington University): $7,000
- Tristan Bassingthwaighte (University of Hawaii, Manoa): $3,000

The Current CollegeNET Tournament

CollegeNET's current tournament runs until Wednesday, January 30. The top Grand Prize winner will receive $25,000 for tuition or student loan repayment.

Invite Your Friends to Participate

CollegeNET.com is on Facebook, Twitter, and Google+.

Sarah Willats: ALUMNI SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

Sarah (LadyLuck16) joined CollegeNET.com in September 2009, and has since won $5,300 in student loan debt repayments. Sarah graduated from Jacksonville University in 2011.

CollegeNET.com: How did you come across the site?

Sarah Willats: I found CollegeNET in my junior year of college. I was searching for scholarships and came across a site that basically listed a collection of scholarship websites. I signed up for a couple, including CollegeNET.com. I'm so glad I was able to access CollegeNET's website on the first try.

CN: What's your ideal profession?

SW: I aspire to be a professional translator working for a large multi-national company in either Europe or South America. Or I'll just backpack around the world—whichever comes first.

CN: What should others know about CollegeNET.com?

SW: It pays to think, but it also pays to be consistent and determined when competing on and contributing to this site.

Plus, if you envision a career in writing or TV, CollegeNET.com gives you the tools to practice your skills and learn from others who are like-minded.

Topics Introduced on www.CollegeNET.com

Being too kind, is it a bad thing?: "I would say I am a loving, caring individual who tries to accept everyone equally. A lot of times this kind of attitude backfires on me." — tdoobsjr

If you had to do it over: "If there was one thing you could do over again, what would that one thing be?" — astrogirl0219