Scholarships and Financial Aid

2006–2007 Academic Year

We are delighted that you are considering Furman University. For most students and parents, cost is an important factor in selecting a college. The Furman Office of Financial Aid is committed to providing a level of financial assistance that will enable each student to fulfill his or her goal of obtaining a quality education. Furman offers assistance through academic scholarships and grants. We also offer many need-based scholarships, grants, student loans and student employment.

Applying for Academic Scholarships Only

If you are applying only for Academic Scholarships you must complete the Application for Scholarships and Financial Aid. This form is included in the Admissions Application booklet.

Applying for All Forms of Assistance

If you are an Early Decision applicant and wish to apply for all forms of assistance, you should complete the Application for Scholarships and Financial Aid and the CSS Profile form. Return the Application for Scholarships and Financial Aid to the Office of Financial Aid postmarked no later than November 15, 2005. Have the CSS Profile (<http://profileonline.collegeboard.com>) sent to Furman, (Code number for Furman is 5222.)
